

IMS Expert Services Leaps Forward on Inc. 5000's Fastest Growing Companies

Pensacola, FL – August 21, 2008 – IMS ExpertServices™, the global leader in expert witness search services, has been named by Inc. Magazine as one of America's fastest growing private companies for the second straight year. From a ranking of 2143 in 2007, IMS jumped 385 places to land at 1758 this year.

According to Inc. Magazine CEO John Koten, the Inc. 5000 measures the progress of "the most innovative, dynamic, and successful companies" in the U.S. Koten commended IMS as a member of "the most influential business club in America."

"IMS ExpertServices™ has now experienced seven consecutive years of out-performing the market," said Bill Wein, company president and co-founder. "We've continued to grow even in the current economic downturn by offering unparalleled service in the ultra-competitive legal market. We present the most qualified experts to top litigators using our proprietary search methods."

"We're very pleased to be recognized again by the Inc. 5000," added Mike Wein, IMS's CEO. "We believe our success has to do with our employees. Our employees work hard for us and our clients, and we see the results every day. With the Inc. 5000 award, their efforts can be recognized by the wider Pensacola community as well."
